Dear Mr Wayne Sturt

Licence Class: Business Radio Simple UK Licence

Please find enclosed your radio licence, following your successful licence application. Your licence document contains the terms and conditions governing the legal operation of your system. Please check the document carefully to ensure the contact and licence details are correct.

At any time, your installation may be inspected by Ofcom to ensure that it complies with the licence terms and conditions and does not cause interference to other users.

If you have not already done so, you can register online by visiting our website. Registration is simple and secure, and can be done whenever you wish. It is easy to use; you only have to remember your password and email address. This gives you the flexibility to amend your licence details or take out a new licence whenever you need to.

Remember that your licence is a legal document and for it to remain valid it must always show any changes in your operational or personal circumstances.

Similarly, if you need to amend account, payment or any other contact details then please ensure that these are correctly recorded on the online licensing system.

The Ofcom licensing portal can be found at: <https://ofcom.force.com/licensingcomlogin>

Should you need any further assistance, please contact us using the above contact details. You will need your customer reference number and your licence number.

Yours sincerely,

Spectrum Licensing Copies of this letter have been sent to:
